1992 is a year of change for our class. Not only have new sports, academic and social programs been installed this year at WBHS, but also our class looks forward to spreading our wings and leaving the nest. The old ways are disappearing. Amidst these winds of change, we shall grow and thus learn to live.

ALL OF MY LOVE

For the first time in school history, West Boylston hosted a Junior-Senior prom at White Cliffs Restaurant in Northboro on May 10, 1991. Due to declining school enrollment, the proms were combined to ensure a large turnout.

Although the idea of having a combined prom was not well received at first, students still managed to have a good time, in a variety of ways. Some students sucked the helium out of balloons to amuse their friends. A few students let loose and had a small food fight.

Action on the dance floor got moving with "The Electric Slide." Then everyone gathered in a large circle and sang, "That's What Friends Are For."

The evening climaxed with the naming of the prom court. Those honored were Kara Folckemer, Sara Lindberg, Jan Aquafresca, Erin Cleary, Jackie Sullivan, Kristen Mancini, and Jen Fitton. Erin was crowned Prom Queen.

The evening came to an end as the court and their dates danced to the Prom theme "All of My Love."

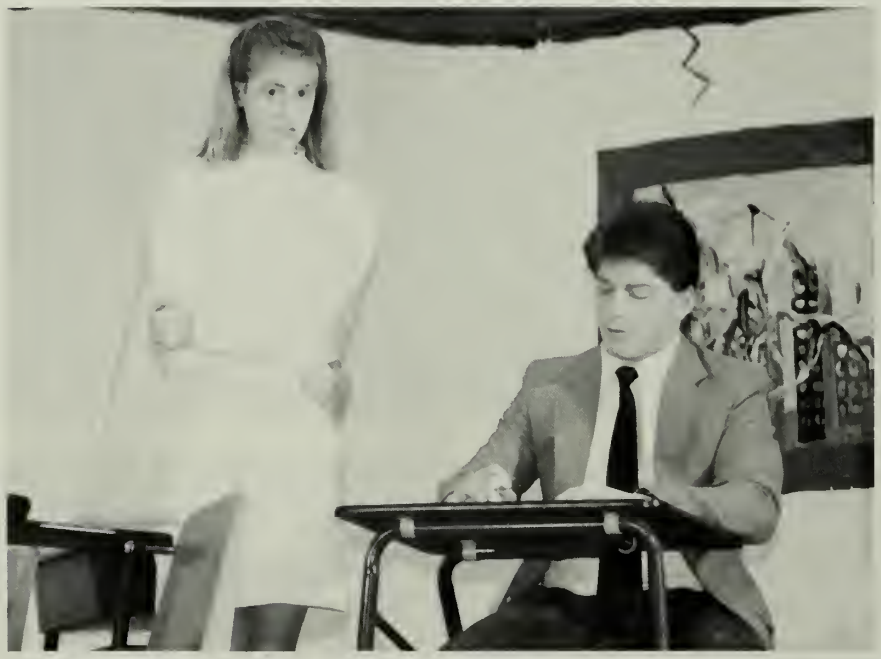
"Up the Down Staircase"

On December 13 and 14, the Class of 1992 presented "Up the Down Staircase" by Bel Kaufman. Mr. Steven White directed this play with the aid of Christopher Teauge, student director. "Up the Down Staircase" depicted the challenges and frustrations of the unpracticed teacher, Sylvia Barrett, played by Jackie Sullivan. The production was a great success.

Thirty-six students were involved in the play. Senior members of the production committees included Mark Fancy, T.C. Gaudette, Christopher Teague and Ben Gill.

Everyone involved should be congratulated for a job well done. Without their hard work and dedication, the play would not have been the success it was.

Principal Dr. Clarke (Jason Kavanaugh) gives his opening day welcome speech to the students.



Although teacher Paul Barringer (Mike Lavoie) knows he is reading a love letter from student Alice Blake (Karen Mensing), he grades it as a composition to avoid the issue.
Elizabeth Ellis (Amy Gaitane) chats with Alice Blake (Karen Mensing) during class.
Backstage, Chris Teague assists Mike Lavoie with his makeup.

J.J. McHabe (Chris Teague) reprimands Joe Ferrone (Sean O'Hearn) for being late to homeroom and accuses him of stealing a wallet, while teacher Sylvia Barrett (Jackie Sullivan) protests Joe's innocence.

Bea Schachter (Linda Dainis), right, gives advice to new teacher Sylvia Barrett (Jackie Sullivan).

Homecoming '91

This year Homecoming '91 was a huge success. The four high school grades competed in numerous activities. Although the freshmen won overall, an abundance of class spirit was shown among a majority of the students.

As in previous years, there was a variety of dress up days. These days included stripe day, clash day, fictional character day, champion day, and the traditional blue and white day.

The Pep Rally enhanced the class spirit of all the students. The football team was psyched going into the big game against David Prouty. The Lions triumphed with a score of 21-2.

During halftime the first annual Homecoming Parade was held. The firetruck and band marched around the track.

The Homecoming Court consisted of freshmen Sara Pillsbury and Heather Rivard, Sophomores Diana Kershaw and Tanya Philbin, Juniors Lindsay Kerr and Katie Priestly, and Seniors Sara Lindberg and Kellie Richardson. Kellie was crowned Homecoming Queen.

The last event of Homecoming Week was a dance held on Saturday.

Left: Hey, look at us, are we great or what?

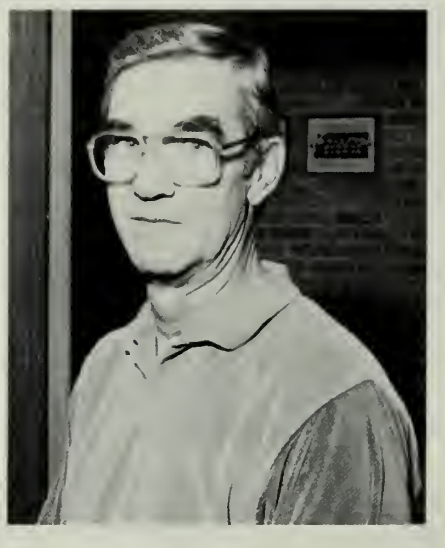
Bottom right: Stop tickling me! You're embarassing me!

Special Thanks

Mr. Ralph Pendleton

1992 saw the retirement of Mr. Ralph Pendleton after thirty-six years of teaching at West Boylston High School. As a member of the social studies department, he taught a variety of courses including American Government, Psychology, and Contemporary Problems.

Mr. Pendleton possessed a unique style of teaching. He always taught solely for those who wanted to learn. The movies, field trips and speakers which he incorporated into his lectures enabled eager students to gain full understanding of the material being studied.



His podium displayed a new inspiring message each day. Students waited in hope that Mr. Pendleton would one day slip and call them by their first name. Mr. Pendleton was well liked and will be remembered by his students. As he begins a new part of his life, we wish him much luck.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Angelina Anderson

This year at WBHS, the unfortunate death of Mrs. Angelina Anderson created an emptiness in all of our lives, that can never be filled.

She was not only a teacher, but a friend as well. She had a great sense of humor and spent many hours telling us of her trips around the world. Her classes were enlightening, intellectual, yet never boring.

Mrs. Anderson had a knack for making languages interesting. She broadened our horizons with field trips, international food days, and other pieces of culture.

Mrs. Anderson was an excellent teacher and a wonderful person. Those who knew her were touched by her dedication, her compassion, and her ability to laugh. She will be missed by all.

They Never Quite Leave Us

They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;

A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast to the places they blessed with their presence and love.

The work which they left and the books which they read speak mutely, though still with an eloquence rare.

And the songs that they sang, the words that they said, yet linger and sigh on the desolate air.

- Margaret E. Sangster

Dedication

Mrs. Emily Boosahda

Mrs. Emily Boosahda was and always will be an inspiration to many people. She had a special way of motivating her students to expand their knowledge of art and life. What was most important to Mrs. B was to show her students how to care about learning.

A great deal of her precious time was spent doing things for others. She spent endless hours working on plans for the art festivals, exhibits, fundraisers, field trips, Art Club, and favors for people.

Since Mrs. B has retired from West Boylston High School, we will never be the same. Everything she left at the school will help us remember the years she taught us.

We all know that Mrs. B devotes her life to what she believes in, and there is one message we would like to send to her: We believe in you. Good luck Mrs. B — you'll be famous.

Love all of us '92

Looking Back

Looking Forward

As the winds of change carry us into another phase of life, we know that we are prepared to face this new direction. Our roots have been well-established, and our wings are eager to take us out into the world. We know we will succeed if we carry our past with us and yield to the winds of change.

Yearbook Staff

Don't look so bummed out, Courtney and T.C., it was only six rolls of film!

The yearbook staff meets with Taylor Representative John Siemiatkoski, at Mrs. Roberts' house, during Christmas vacation.

Cara knows what the yearbook staff needs to keep going — a little caffeine!

Our artist, Ben Gill.

T.C. begins the monumental task of typing the senior section.
